

HYDROMINDER

The Hydrominder is a float valve operated proportioner designed to maintain the desired level of ready-to-use chemical solution in any reservoir.

It injects chemical concentrate into the water flow until the reservoir fills to the level set by the adjustable float. When solution usage causes the reservoir level to drop, the float valve will open and replenish the reservoir. This cycle repeats automatically.

